SUBJECT: SCHOOL CALENDAR / SCHOOL DAY

School Calendar

The Board of Trustees shall adopt a school calendar each year upon the recommendation of the school Principal. The development of the annual school calendar will be done with consultation from the Teacher’s Association, administration, and other staff. The teacher work year shall consist of no more than 200 days. The days consist of no less than one hundred eighty five (185) instructional days. In addition, the Board of Trustees shall annually approve a summer calendar, comprehensive as per our charter agreement, held between the June and August Regents dates.

School Day

The official school day shall provide sufficient opportunity to implement the educational programs and services. The school day shall be flexible enough to accommodate the diverse and various needs of the students, staff(s) or committee(s) being served. The normal work day for full time teachers shall be no more than seven hours and fifteen minutes (7:15), as per the Teachers Association Agreement.
